Note: Two opponents were known by different names when Miami played them. Arkansas A&M later became Arkansas-Monticello, and Carnegie Tech became Carnegie Mellon. Also, Case Institute of Technology and Western Reserve University merged and became Case Western Reserve University. Miami's win against Michigan State in 1994 came via a forfeit by the Spartans.

Throughout the sports world, Miami University is recognized as "The Cradle of Coaches" because of the number of coaching legends who began their careers on the Oxford campus.

College football luminaries such as Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Ara Parseghian and John Pont used Miami as a training ground, as did professional coaching greats like Weeb Ewbank, Paul Brown and Sid Gillman.

At one point in 1977, five of the 10 head football coaches in the Big Ten were products of Miami University. Presently, four of the Big Ten's head football coaches have Miami roots: Randy Walker, Northwestern; Ron Zook, Illinois; Jim Tressel, Ohio State; Terry Hoeppner, Indiana.

The list on the top of the facing page contains just some of the college and NFL head coaches who started at Miami, either as players, assistant coaches or head coaches. Their years and roles at Miami are noted in italics.

Commentaries on the Cradle of Coaches >>>

It's not the water, which seems unadulterated and clear enough. It's not the soil, although the rolling-hills landscape of southwestern Ohio is unrelentingly attractive. It's not mirrors. Or blind luck. Or a magic spell. The McGuffey Readers sprang from Miami University, not the Harry Houdini Guide to Sleight-of-Hand Sorcery. This is a meat-and-potatoes kind of place, in other words. Straightforward. Basic. Unpretentious.

So how do you explain such extraordinary achievement? How do you explain a succession chain that rivals the House of Windsor for its distinction? And how do you explain this: Woody, Bo, Ara, Red Blaik, Paul Brown and enough national championships and Super Bowl rings in waiting to stock a small shrine. Et cetera, et cetera, et cetera.

The Cradle of Coaches. That's the honorary-degree nickname carried by Miami's football program—and for good reason. The school's teams compete in the low-profile Mid-American Conference and have produced a mere handful of low-profile NFL players. But Miami has spawned a staggering number of world-class football coaches who either attended the school or worked there. And in that regard, it stands alone.

Richmond Times-Dispatch

At first glance, there's really nothing about Oxford, Ohio, that gives it distinction over any other small, bucolic community nestled in mid-America.

The sleepy city in southern Ohio is a reminder of days gone by. White picket fences, mom, apple pie and Old Glory are important to a town of 9,500 population. So is football.

In fact, it's the gridiron sport which makes Oxford unique. Football is king all over Ohio, but the sport truly is special in Oxford because of Miami University, otherwise known as The Cradle of Coaches.

There are bigger and more prestigious universities throughout the land, but none has made such an impact on the coaching profession to match that of Miami.

Ohio State has glamor and commands media attention, but the Buckeyes take a back seat to Miami when it comes to gridiron tradition. Even Paul Brown and Woody Hayes, two of the greatest coaches in Ohio State history, used Miami as a springboard to success with the Buckeyes.

The epicenter of college football coaching is not Michigan, Oklahoma, Alabama or Notre Dame. It's Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, long known as "The Cradle of Coaches."

During one 14-year span, three of the greatest coaches of all time— Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian and Bo Schembechler—blew the whistle for the Redskins.

Sid Gillman, Bill Mallory, Dick Crum and John Pont are other Miami head coaches who moved on to greater fame elsewhere. Red Blaik, Paul Brown, Carmen Cozza, Weeb Ewbank, Dave McClain, Gary Moeller, Larry Smith and Jim Young either played and or served as assistants in the Cradle.

Those talented coaches combined to win 13 Mid-American Conference titles, more than any other school. And for three straight seasons—1973-75— Mallory and Crum transformed Miami into a national power. The Redskins finished No. 15, No. 10 and No. 12 in the final Associated Press polls, were a combined 32-1-1 and won three straight Tangerine (now Citrus) Bowls. Miami (Ohio) used to be much bigger stuff than Miami (Fla.).

Gillman Rocked the Cradle

Although legendary coaches like Earl Blaik, Paul Brown and Weeb Ewbank had roots at Miami as players, Sid Gillman is widely recognized as the coach who got the Cradle of Coaches rocking.

Gillman, who was head coach from 1944-47, began a football dynasty in Oxford by directing his Miami teams to a 31-6-1 record, a winning percentage of .829. His 1947 squad rolled to a 9-0-1 record, including a Sun Bowl victory over Texas Tech in Miami's first bowl game.

But Gillman's tenure was marked by more than just an impressive record. His passion for football and his enthusiasm for teaching the game led to an incredible coaching legacy at Miami. Among the players Gillman recruited to Oxford were Bill Arnsparger, Paul Dietzel, Ara Parseghian, John Pont and Bo Schembechler, all of whom were influenced by Gillman's passion for the game and went on to coaching greatness themselves. Parseghian, Pont and Schembechler began their head coaching careers at Miami, serving back-to-back-to-back coaching stints from 1951-68. All three went on to earn National Coach of the Year honors—Parseghian at Notre Dame, Pont at Indiana and Schembechler at Michigan. Dietzel was also a National Coach of the Year at LSU.

After spending one year as an assistant at West Point, Gillman returned to southwestern Ohio and was named head coach at Cincinnati where he led the Bearcats to a 50-13-1 record and three MAC championships in six seasons. He then enjoyed a distinguished 18-year career in the National Football League, posting a 122-99-7 record with the Los Angeles Rams (1955-60), San Diego Chargers (1961-71) and Houston Oilers (1973-74). His teams won five divisional titles and one AFL crown.

Gillman, went on to work in the front office with the Dallas Cowboys, Oakland Raiders and Chicago Bears and inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1983.

Jim Tressel spent two seasons as Miami's quarterbacks coach from 1979-80. He is now the head coach at Ohio State.

Joe Novak is a Miami alumnus and spent three seasons with the program as an assistant. He coaches Northern Illinois.

MIAMI 13
TEXAS TECH 12

Jan. 1, 1948
Sun Bowl Stadium
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 15,000

Playing in its first bowl game, Miami used its outstanding speed and quickness to defeat Texas Tech 13-12 in the 1947 Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas. Miami opened the scoring in the first quarter with a six-play, 70-yard scoring drive, culminating in a 1-yard touchdown run by Ara Parseghian. The Red Raiders responded with a 45-yard scoring drive in the second quarter, ending in a 3-yard touchdown run by Tech's Jim Conley. After a scoreless third quarter, Miami went ahead for good early in the fourth quarter. After co-captain Bill Hoover blocked a Red Raider kick, Paul Shoults scored on a 2-yard run to make the score 13-6 after Jake Speelman's conversion kick. Texas Tech bounced back when defensive tackle Bernie Winkler intercepted a Mel Olix pass and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown, but Miami's Ernie Plank blocked the extra point attempt to preserve the victory.

1950 SALAD BOWL
MIAMI 34
ARIZONA STATE 21

Jan. 1, 1951
Sun Devil Stadium
Tempe, Ariz.
Attendance: 24,000

A fierce Miami defense held Arizona State all-American halfback Wilford White to 106 yards rushing en route to a 34-21 Salad Bowl win. Although the 21 points were the most scored against Miami during the season, ASU's White was held to his second-lowest rushing total of the season. Miami used a balanced offensive attack to become the fourth straight visiting team to win the Salad Bowl. Jim Bailey's 108 yards rushing topped a 225-yard ground attack, while quarterback Nobby Wirkowski completed 16 of 24 passes for 231 yards.

Dec. 22, 1962
Tangerine Bowl
Orlando, Fla.
Attendance: 7,500

The high-powered Houston Cougars used four second-quarter touchdowns to hand Miami its first bowl defeat in three tries, 49-21 in the 1962 Tangerine Bowl. Houston used a near-perfect balance of rushing (207 yards) and passing (206), while Miami managed just 54 yards on the ground. Miami quarterback Ernie Kellermann completed 17 of 40 passes for 265 yards and one touchdown. Cougar quarterback Billy Roland, who completed 11 of 17 passes for 199 yards, was the game's MVP. Houston's Bill McMillan connected on a school-record seven extra-point tries and added a touchdown reception for 13 points on the day.

Dec. 22, 1973
Orange Bowl
Gainesville, Fla.
Attendance: 37,234

Miami capped its first undefeated season (11-0) since 1955 with a 16-7 win over Southeastern Conference power Florida in the frigid Tangerine Bowl in Gainesville. Florida finished the regular season 7-4 and tied for fifth in the SEC, but the Gators won their last five games to earn the Tangerine Bowl bid on their home field. Despite 20-degree temperatures, Miami rolled up 239 rushing yards against the SEC's No. 1 defense. Fullback Chuck Varner, the game's Outstanding Back, finished with 157 yards on 28 carries and one touchdown. Quarterback Steve Sanna completed one pass in eight attempts as Miami used a T-formation to get the ball to Varner.

Dec. 21, 1974
Tangerine Bowl
Orlando, Fla.
Attendance: 15,897

For the second straight year, Miami capped an unbeaten season (10-0-1) by defeating a Southeastern Conference opponent. Miami capitalized on two early Georgia turnovers en route to a 21-10 victory. Miami used its potent rushing attack to pound out 228 yards on the ground, with fullback Rob Carpenter gaining 114 yards on 30 carries. Quarterback Sherman Smith earned Most Valuable Back honors, rushing for 90 yards and scoring one touchdown. He completed only one pass, but it was an important 7-yard touchdown to Ricky Taylor. After taking a 21-3 lead at the half, the Miami defense held the Bulldogs to one touchdown in the second half despite three fumbles by the MU offense.

MIAMI 20
SOUTH CAROLINA 7

Dec. 20, 1975
Tangerine Bowl
Orlando, Fla.
Attendance: 20,247

Miami became the only team to capture three consecutive bowl titles from 1973-75 with a 20-7 win over South Carolina in the 1975 Tangerine Bowl. Miami's win gave the team a three-year record of 32-1-1, which tied Oklahoma for the best three-year record in the nation. Miami used its traditionally strong rushing attack to gain 238 yards on the ground, led by fullback Rob Carpenter's 120 yards on 29 carries and two touchdowns. Quarterback Sherman Smith completed 10 of 13 passes for 137 yards with one interception. The South Carolina offense came into the game averaging more than 409 yards of total offense, but the Miami defense held the Gamecocks to 284 yards of total offense, including just 56 rushing yards.

Fresno, Calif.
Attendance: 26,000

Entering the 1986 California Bowl, San Jose State led the nation in total offense and passing. The Spartans lived up to their billing in racking up 426 yards en route to a 37-7 win over Miami. San Jose State quarterback Mike Perez completed 21 of 37 passes for 291 yards and three touchdowns, while the San Jose defense forced six turnovers and sacked Miami quarterbacks Terry Morris and Mike Bates six times. The Spartan defense held Miami tailback George Swarn, who had rushed for 1,112 yards during the regular season, to just 46 yards on 15 carries. Perez and Miami defensive tackle Andy Marlatt were honored as the game's Most Valuable Players.

2003 GMAC BOWL
MIAMI 49
LOUISVILLE 28

Dec. 18, 2003
Ladd-Peebles Stadium
Mobile, Ala.
Attendance: 40,620

Playing his last game at Miami, junior quarterback Ben Roethlisberger torched the Louisville Cardinals for 376 yards and four touchdown passes, as the RedHawks claimed their first bowl victory since the 1975 Tangerine Bowl, 49-28 over Louisville. Miami scored the first three touchdowns of the game and led by as much as 35-7 after a 26-yard TD pass from Roethlisberger to Larkin. A furious Cardinal rally would close the deficit to 35-28 late in the third quarter, but a Mike Smith touchdown run and a Matt Pusateri interception return for a touchdown would provide the RedHawks with all the security they needed. Roethlisberger, who declared for the NFL Draft following the game, was named the MVP.

Dec. 28, 2004
Independence Stadium
Shreveport, La.
Attendance: 43,000

After rallying to take its first lead of the game midway through the third quarter, Miami was unable to hold off a potent Iowa State ground attack and fell 17-13 to Iowa State. Miami had trailed 10-0 late in the first half, but quarterback Josh Betts hooked up with running back Luke Clemens on a 28-yard touchdown pass to close the gap to three right before the teams headed for the locker room. The RedHawks took their only lead of the game in the third quarter, when Mike Smith scored from two yards out. The dangerous combination of Cyclone running back Stevie Hicks and quarterback Bret Meyer proved too much, however, as ISU rumbled for 295 yards on the ground, including a one-yard touchdown plunge in the fourth quarter that put ISU up for good. Miami had a last chance late in the fourth quarter after stuffing the Cyclones on fourth-and-inches, but ISU's Ellis Hobbs picked off a Betts pass to end the game. The game was the last for Terry Hoeppner as Miami's head coach.

The 1973 football season is the opening chapter in a trilogy of seasons that helped Miami carve a unique niche in college football history. From 1973-75, Miami amassed an amazing 32-1-1 record, capturing three Mid-American Conference and Tangerine Bowl titles along the way.

Miami opened the 1973 season with a 32-0 win over Dayton. In a sign of things to come, the MU defense held the Flyers to just nine rushing yards and 63 passing yards, while Miami's offense rolled up 384 total yards.

In Week 2, Miami traveled to West Lafayette to take on Big Ten foe Purdue. The Boilermakers led 19-10 midway through the fourth quarter when Miami staged a furious comeback. Junior Brad Cousino blocked a Purdue punt and returned it 26 yards to the Purdue 34 yard-line. That set up a 30-yard TD pass from Steve Sanna to fullback Chuck Varner that cut the gap to 19-17.

Miami held Purdue on the following series and again forced the Boilermakers to punt. Miami's pressure on the punt resulted in just a 14-yard kick, giving Miami the ball on its own 39 yard-line. Varner ended the ensuing 61-yard scoring drive with a 3-yard plunge, his third touchdown of the game, to give Miami the win.

In a Week 3 tilt at South Carolina,

Miami was out to prove that its 21-8 win over the Gamecocks the previous year was no fluke. After a 3-3 first half, Miami went up 10-3 in the third quarter on a 20-yard run by Varner. That score was set up when junior John Roudebush recovered a South Carolina fumble on the Gamecock 34-yard line. Miami recovered another USC fumble later in the period, and sophomore David Draudt kicked a 37-yard field goal to give Miami a 13-3 lead. Despite allowing a fourth-quarter touchdown, the Miami defense proved to be the difference in the 13-11 win, holding South Carolina to 169 total yards and nine first downs.

"Our defense did another great job just like it did last week against Purdue," said head coach Bill Mallory. "These have to be the best back-to-back victories in Miami football history."

Miami opened the MAC slate with an easy 31-6 victory over Marshall. Hitchens opened the game with two touchdown runs in the first quarter and finished the half with 83 yards. Miami's rushing attack tallied 241 yards, while defense held the Thundering Herd to just 24 rushing yards.

Miami was without its top two players, Hitchens and Cousino, when Ohio visited Oxford for Homecoming. Subbing for the injured Hitchens, sophomore Randy Walker scored Miami's only touchdown in the first quarter. Walker finished with 160 yards on 38 carries. Draudt sealed the 10-6 victory with a 41-yard field goal in the fourth quarter. Miami's defense held the Bobcats to 67 rushing yards, 54 passing yards and six first downs.

The running attack of Varner, Hitchens and Smith helped the Red and White spoil Bowling Green's Homecoming, 31-8, in Week 6. MU rolled up 380 of its 421 total yards on the ground, as all three backs topped 100 yards. Hitchens led the way with 122 yards, including a season-long 62-

Defense was the name of the game when Miami put its 6-0 record on the line against Toledo on Oct. 27. Playing in front of the largest home crowd of the season, Miami thwarted the high-powered Toledo offense, which was led by the nation's top offensive player, quarterback Gene Swick. The Miami defense held the Rockets to just seven rushing yards and limited Swick to 151 passing yards in a 16-0 shutout. Hitchens scored the game's only TD in the first quarter, and Draudt set a school record with three field goals.

The following week, Miami was held to just 52 rushing yards but still managed a 24-9 win at Western Michigan. Miami got off to a quick start when Walker returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a score, the longest kick return in school history. Miami scored two more first-half TDs on Steve Sanna's 75- and 64-yard scoring strikes to Larry Harper and John Wiggins.

In Week 9, all that stood in the way of Miami's first MAC title in seven years and a trip to the Tangerine Bowl was defending conference champion Kent. Miami led 17-10 after three quarters on the strength of Varner's 9-yard TD catch and 2-yard scoring run. Draudt iced the 20-10 road win with a school-record 52-yard field goal in the fourth quarter.

Miami closed out the regular season with a 6-0 victory over Cincinnati in the traditional Thanksgiving Week game. The only score came when Larry Harper returned the opening kickoff 95 yards for a score. The Miami defense held the Bearcats to 92 total yards and finished the season as the nation's leader in total defense and rushing defense.

In the Tangerine Bowl in Gainesville, Fla., Miami was pitted against Southeastern Conference power Florida. Despite 20-degree weather, Miami amassed 239 rushing yards against the SEC's top defense en route to a 16-7 victory. Varner carried 28 times for 157 yards and a touchdown and was named the game's Outstanding Back. Miami's heralded defense limited the Gators to 189 total yards, including just 90 rushing yards.

The victory capped Miami's first undefeated season since 1955 and gave the squad a No. 15 ranking in the final Associated Press poll.

After the successful 1973 season, Miami lost 12 letterwinners to graduation, and head coach Bill Mallory left the "Cradle" to build a national power at Colorado. Those people left behind a winning legacy, however, and this season's team rallied behind the cry of "11 more in '74."

In his first game as head coach, Dick Crum shut out Eastern Michigan 39-0. It was the first time the two schools had met on the gridiron, and the triumph gave Miami a school-record 13 victories in a row. Miami's potent rushing attack racked up 284 yards in the game, led by junior Randy Walker, who totaled 103 yards. The powerful Miami defense, which led the nation in total defense in 1973, showed that it was still a force, holding EMU to one yard passing and 104 total yards in the game.

Miami's winning streak ended the following week with a 7-7 tie at Purdue. After a scoreless first half, Purdue took a 7-0 lead late in the third quarter. Miami tied the game on a 35-yard touchdown pass from Steve Sanna to Ricky Taylor with 2:53 left to play. Purdue had a chance to win the game but missed a 32-yard field goal with four seconds left. Sanna completed 23 of 36 passes for 227 yards on the day.

Marshall felt the wrath of Miami the following week as the Red and White got back on winning track with a 42-0 branding of the Herd. After a disappointing rushing attack the previous week, Miami rolled up 344 rushing yards at Marshall. Walker and sophomore Rob Carpenter combined for 235 yards and four touchdowns in the game.

In the Week 4 contest at Kentucky, the Wildcats jumped out to a 10-0 lead in the first seven minutes of the game. Despite surrendering 349 total yards in the game, Miami did not relinquish another point the rest of the game, and rallied for a 14-10 victory. Brad Cousino helped set up both of Miami's third-quarter touchdowns, forcing a fumble that set up a 6-yard touchdown pass from Sherman Smith to Ricky Taylor, and later blocking a Wildcat punt that was recovered by Brad Miller for the deciding score.

The next two weeks saw Miami dismantle MAC rivals Ohio and Bowling Green by a combined score of 65-13. In the 31-3 victory at Ohio, Miami piled up 397 rushing yards, including 123 by Walker. In a 34-10 win over Bowling Green, Miami ran for 264 yards. Smith led the way with 109 yards, while Carpenter pitched in with 84 yards and two TDs.

Toledo took to the air in Week 7 to try to upset the 5-0-1 Redskins. Rocket quarterback Gene Swick assaulted the Miami secondary by completing 25 of 38 passes for 341 yards and a touchdown. Miami clung to a 17-14 lead heading into the fourth quarter and looked for someone to put the game away. Carpenter proved to be the man for the job, scoring on runs of 49 and 20 yards en route to 181 yards and UPI Running Back of the Week honors. Walker completed a halfback option to Larry Harper for Miami's final score in the 38-22 win.

After being scorched by the Toledo offense, Miami's defense responded with a 31-0 shutout of Western Michigan. Smith led Miami's rushing attack with 132 yards and two TDs.
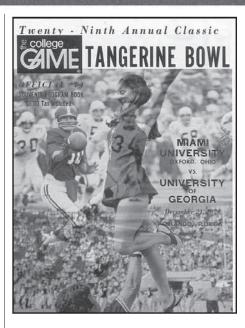

Looking to capture its second consecutive MAC championship, Miami played host to Kent in the home finale. The preseason MAC favorite, Kent had already been eliminated from title contention but was looking to spoil Miami's title hopes. Miami led 16-10 in the fourth quarter, but the Flashes used an 80-yard, 19-play scoring drive to take a 17-16 lead with just 59 seconds remaining. On Miami's final possession, Walker completed a 28-yard option pass to Smith to get the Redskins near midfield, and Senna completed a pair of sideline passes that moved Miami to the Kent 22-yard line. After three quick running plays resulted in no gain, the game was in the hands and foot of kicker David Draudt, whose 39-yard game-winner with six seconds left gave Miami its second consecutive conference championship and a return trip to the Tangerine Bowl.

Said Draudt: "This has not been a very good year for me. I had missed some field goals I should have made, but this was one

I wasn't going to miss."

Miami concluded the regular season with a 9-0-1 record after a 27-7 triumph at rival Cincinnati. Miami put up 21 points in the opening half on a fumble recovery on the opening drive and two touchdown passes from Sanna. Miami's defense handled the rest, limiting the Bearcats to 119 total yards, including just 14 rushing yards, and three first downs.

For the second consecutive year, Miami concluded its season with a trip to Orlando for the Tangerine Bowl. Miami turned two Georgia turnovers into scores in taking an early 14-3 lead. Miami then used its running attack to pound out 228 yards, slowing down Georgia's potent offense in the process. Carpenter led Miami with 114 yards on 30 carries, but it was quarterback Sherman Smith who made a big difference in the outcome. Smith rushed for 90 yards and a touchdown, and completed a 7-yard TD pass to earn Most Valuable Back honors. Despite losing three fumbles in the second half, Miami limited the Bulldogs to one score en route to the 21-10 victory.
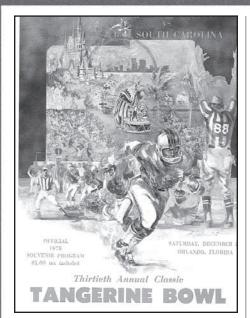

Miami ended the season with a 10-0-1 record and enjoyed a No. 10 ranking in the final Associated Press poll, marking the first time a MAC team had finished in the Top 10.

Thirtieth Annual Classic
TANGERINE BOWL

As the 1975 season opened, Miami rode an impressive 23-game unbeaten streak that dated back to the final game of the 1972 season. More importantly, the Redskins had their sights set on a third consecutive Mid-American Conference championship.

The Red and White opened the campaign with a 50-0 thrashing of Marshall at Miami Field. The Miami offense blistered the Herd for 476 total yards, including 416 rushing yards. The 50 points were the most scored by Miami since a 66-6 blowout of Marshall in 1971.

Miami traveled to Michigan State in Week 2 looking to extend not only its unbeaten streak but also its three-game unbeaten streak against Big Ten foes. The Spartans struck first on a 4-yard touchdown run in the second quarter to lead 7-0 at halftime. Miami opened the second half with an 80-yard drive that was capped by a 30-yard scoring strike from Sherman Smith to running back Randy Walker. The extra point missed, however, making the score 7-6. After Miami recovered a Michigan State fumble at the Spartan 19-yard line midway through the third period, Smith broke through the Michigan State defense from 12 yards out and put Miami up 13-7. Michigan State climbed back on top with a 56-yard aerial strike with 1:08 left in the game and held on for a 14-13 win, ending Miami's school-record 24-game unbeaten streak.

Still regrouping from the previous week's loss, Miami returned home for a hard-fought battle with Ball State. Miami held on to defeat the Cardinals, 35-28, extending its MAC winning streak to 12 games.

Week 4 saw Miami make its third trip in three years to Ross-Ade Stadium to take on Purdue. Neither team was able to reach the 200-yard mark in total offense, but Miami used a Purdue turnover on its own 34-yard line to punch in its first touchdown on a 4-yard run by Tom Zwayer. Miami iced the game late in the fourth quarter on a 2-yard plunge by Rob Carpenter, securing the 14-3 victory.

In the next week's game at Dayton, Miami used a blocked punt safety and a 30-yard touchdown pass from Smith to Mike Rhodes to capture a 10-0 win over the Flyers. The MU defense limited Dayton to just three first downs and 190 yards of total offense.

The following week, the Miami defense smothered Ohio in a 17-9 win. In one of the all-time best defensive efforts in school history, the Red and White limited the Bobcats to just 88 total yards, including minus nine rushing yards.

The Miami defense stood tall again against Bowling Green in Week 7. After allowing the Falcons 10 first-half points, the Redskins shut down Bowling Green and caused two second-half turnovers that allowed Miami to escape, 20-17. The game-winning score was a 42-yard field goal by freshman Fred Johnson with 3:46 left in the game.

In the Parents' Day tilt in Week 8, Miami faced the high-powered Toledo Rockets. Miami used its ground attack to control the game and keep the ball out of the hands of Toledo quarterback Gene Swick. Running back Randy Walker spearheaded the 35-21 victory by piling up 163 yards and a touchdown, including 111 yards in the first half.

Miami became just the second team in MAC history to win three consecutive league titles with its 44-21 victory over Western Michigan in Week 9, guaranteeing the Redskins another trip to the Tangerine Bowl. Miami's rushing attack accounted for 478 yards and all six MU touchdowns. Smith led the ground assault with 175 yards and four touchdowns.

In the conference finale, Carpenter led the Redskins to a 27-8 win over Kent, giving Miami its third straight undefeated league record and pushing the team's three-year conference mark to 16-0. Carpenter accounted for three of Miami's four touchdowns and 153 of the team's 285 rushing yards.

Miami won its fifth straight decision over Cincinnati in the regular-season finale, 21-13. For the second week in a row, Carpenter topped the 150 yard mark, finishing the regular season with 1,022 rushing yards.

Miami's visit to the 1975 Tangerine pitted two teams with stark contrasting styles. South Carolina used a high-powered offense, led by quarterback Jeff Grantz, to average more than 409 yards of total offense, while Miami relied on a stingy defense that allowed just 213 yards a game.

Miami used its traditional running attack to grind out 238 yards on the ground, led by Carpenter's 120 yards and two touchdowns. Smith also played an important role in the Redskins' 20-7 win, completing 10 of 13 passes for 137 yards and running for another 64 yards. The Miami defense held the Gamecocks to 284 total yards, including just 56 rushing yards.

Miami ended the season with an 11-1 record and was ranked in the Top 20 for the third year in a row, this time finishing at No. 12. Miami's near-perfect record of 32-1-1 over the previous three seasons was matched only by 1975 national champion Oklahoma.

Behind a high-flying offense that staged an all-out assault on the program and MAC record books and a defense with a penchant for big plays, Miami University returned to the national college football stage, ending the program's longest MAC Championship drought and earning its first bowl game victory since 1975.

Ironically, the highest-scoring offense in program history made a dismal debut at the University of Iowa, falling 21-3—the first time the Red and White was kept out of the endzone in 93 games. Junior place kicker Jared Parseghian extended his MAC record with his 18th consecutive field goal conversion on Miami's opening drive, but the RedHawks, who were twice intercepted in the red zone, would not score again.

After an uncharacteristically early bye week, Miami returned to action at Northwestern University two weeks later and took out its frustrations with a 44-14 thrashing of the Wildcats. Junior quarterback Ben Roethlisberger shook off his four-interception performance at Iowa by torching Northwestern for 353 yards and three touchdowns, including a season-long 61-yard TD strike to Martin Nance, who caught four passes for 126 yards and two touchdowns in a breakout performance.

Miami made its first visit to Ft. Collins, Colo., the following week to take on Colorado State. On an eye-opening day, the RedHawks ambushed the Rams in their own house, scoring the game's first 14 points and leading by as much as 21. It was junior running back Mike Smith's day to break out, as Smith rolled through the Rams for 125 yards and three TDs.

The next week brought the 108th Battle of the Victory Bell, as Miami and Cincinnati clashed on the RedHawks' brand new field turf. Miami roared out to a 28-0 lead and held a 42-17 edge early in the fourth quarter, but the Bearcats rallied with 20 unanswered points in the fourth. With UC receiving a punt that would put it in position to drive for a winning score, Miami forced a key fumble to secure Miami's third straight Victory Bell win.

With the arrival of October, Miami began conference play with a homecoming tilt versus Akron. Miami built a 24-10 advantage in the third quarter, but the Zips tallied 10 unanswered points and were driving for the go-ahead score in the fourth quarter. An interception by sophomore John Busing killed the drive and Akron's chances, as Miami tallied 21 points in the fourth quarter and clinched the 45-20 win.

Sophomore punt returner Ryne Robinson put on a show for a Parent's weekend crowd the following weekend versus Buffalo. Robinson returned back-to-back punts for touchdowns and set a MAC record with 237 punt return yards, as Miami dominated, 59-3.

After its three-game homestand, Miami traveled to Ball State to spoil the Cardinals' homecoming festivities. Busing intercepted BSU's first pass of the day and returned it 65 yards for a touchdown, and sophomore Darrell Hunter later added a 64-yard interception return for a TD. The RedHawks held Ball State to just 29 yards rushing in the 49-3 thrashing.

A visit to Kent State proved to be the gut-check of the year for the RedHawks, as Miami found itself trailing for the first time in more than six games early in the fourth quarter. Roethlisberger and Nance answered the bell, however, connecting on a pair of fourth-quarter TDs and guiding Miami to a 38-30 win. Nance finished with 181 yards and three touchdowns.

Weeknight football came to Oxford on Nov. 4, as Miami hosted nationally-ranked Bowling Green for an ESPN2 televised night game. The RedHawk defense restricted the vaunted Falcon offense to season lows in points and total offense and senior Cal Murray rushed for a pair of touchdowns in an impressive 33-10 victory.

MAC-East rival Marshall came to town the following week for another nationally-televised contest, and Miami overcame the Thundering Herd and winds gusting up to 50 mph to secure their first MAC East title. Roethlisberger threw for 282 yards and a pair of TDs in spite of the nasty conditions.

With a berth to the MAC Championship already secured, Miami traveled South and closed out the regular season at UCF. Roethlisberger completed his first 14 passes and tied a program record with five TD passes on the day, as Miami cruised to the 56-21 win.

Six days later, Miami headed to Bowling Green for a re-match with the Falcons in the MAC title game. BGSU became the only team to score first versus the RedHawks, but it would not be enough to stop Roethlisberger, who set a MAC Championship game record with 440 yards passing. Miami ended its MAC Championship drought in dominant 49-27 fashion.

The motto all year was "Play 14" and the 14th and final game of the magical season took place in Mobile, Ala. in the GMAC Bowl. Playing his last game as a RedHawk, Roethlisberger powered Miami to a 35-7 second-quarter edge and finished with 376 yards, four TDs and MVP honors. Junior Matt Pusateri returned a fourth-quarter interception 35 yards for a TD to ice the RedHawks' record 13th straight win.

The RedHawks finished the season at 13-1 and one of only four teams nationally with one loss. Their No. 10 final AP ranking matched the best in program history.

JOHN PONT

Jersey No. 42, worn by halfback John Pont through three varsity football campaigns, was retired by the Athletic Advisory Council following his senior season in 1951. Pont thus became the first athlete in Miami history to have his jersey retired.
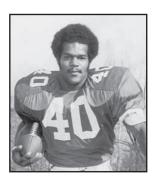

Pont was destined for stardom from the first time he handled the ball in college competition. In the 1949 opener against Wichita, Pont returned the opening kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown, helping Miami to a 23-6 victory. Over the next three seasons, Pont became the top ground-gainer in school history, amassing 2,457 rushing yards and 4,184 yards of total offense. He averaged an astounding 9.5 yards each time he handled the ball, including 6.9 yards per rush. A three-time first-team all-MAC and all-Ohio selection, he received honorable mention all-America honors twice.

Pont led the MAC and was the leading sophomore rusher in the nation in 1949, registering 977 yards. He also led the league in scoring as a sophomore, tallying 54 points. Pont led the MAC in rushing again as a senior, totaling 883 yards, and paced Miami with 66 points.

Pont, who still ranks No. 7 in career rushing yards at Miami, served as an assistant coach at Miami from 1953-55 and as head coach from 1956-62. He was later head coach at Yale (1963-64), Indiana (1965-72), Northwestern (1973-77) and Mount St. Joseph (1990-92). He was named National Coach of the Year in 1967 after leading Indiana to a Big Ten co-championship and a Rose Bowl berth.

Pont is a charter member of the Miami Athletic Hall of Fame and is also a member of the MAC Hall of Fame.

BOB HITCHENS

Jersey No. 40 was retired in 1973 to mark the accomplishments of tailback Bob Hitchens, who concluded his career as the most prolific runner in Miami history. At the end of his three-year tenure (1971-73), Hitchens owned Miami's season and career records for points, rushing touchdowns, rushing attempts and rushing yards.

Hitchens, who was the first player in Miami history to lead the team in rushing three consecutive years, received first-team all-MAC accolades his sophomore and junior seasons and was a second-team all-league selection as a senior. He helped lead Miami to a 25-6 record, including an 11-0 mark his senior year, when MU notched a MAC championship and a Tangerine Bowl victory over Florida.

Hitchens' junior year was a banner one, as he established school records for points (90), rushing touchdowns (15), rushing attempts (326) and rushing yards (1,370). He led the MAC in scoring and rushing, was a four-time MAC Player of the Week and topped the 100-yard rushing mark seven times, including a career-best 218 yards in Miami's win at South Carolina. For his accomplishments, he was honored as team MVP, MAC Offensive Player of the Year, Miami Athlete of the Year and a third-team Associated Press All-American.

Following his playing career, Hitchens was an assistant coach at Carnegie Mellon University and later served as an assistant at Miami from 1980-87.

Hitchens, who still holds the school record for carries in a game (45), was inducted into the Miami Athletic Hall of Fame in 1980.
